SPRING DANCE

GIRLS OF ST. MARGARET'S GUILD WILL GIVE ANNUAL MAY BALL

Glendale society has come to regard the May dances given by the young ladies of St. Margaret's Guild as quite the most important event of the social season.

Preparations have been in progress some time for the annual spring dance, which will occur at Masonic temple Friday evening, May 7. The usual committees are attending to the elaborate decorations and the other details that go to make such an affair a success.

The following list of patrons and patronesses would insure that tomorrow night's dance will be a brilliant affair, even if it were not so well known that the St. Margaret Girls make a success of whatever they undertake:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Stagner, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crampton, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beamon, Dr. and Mrs. James L. Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Landmann, Dr. and Mrs. C. Irving Mills, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Provolt, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Scovern, Mr. and Mrs. William Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Bannock.

A cordial welcome is extended to all to attend this spring dance by the following members of St. Margaret's Guild: Harriett Wells, president; Elizabeth Lange, Cecelia Wilson, Esther Land, Lillian Mills, Dorothy Smith, Mattiebell Provolt, Gertrude Champlain, Katherine Wells Flint, Amy Bowerford, Olga Puri, Bessie Provolt, Irene Read, Arline Hallihan, Athena Puri, Maisee McCann, Eva Black, Pauline Scholz, Edith Foss, Grace Crampton, Bess Phillips, Katherine Lewis, Agnes Frostick, Clara Provolt, Clementina Landmann.

CONGRESSMAN RANDALL

LITTLE LANDS, May 6.—Congressman Charles H. Randall and wife will be visitors in the Little Landers colony, La Canada and La Crescenta valleys on Tuesday, May 11th. In the evening they will be guests of the Monte Vista valley Chamber of Commerce at the weekly "town meeting," where reforestation will be the topic upon which the congressman will hear the views of his constituents.

Mr. Randall desires to meet personally the residents of these communities and has announced the following schedule for the visit of Tuesday: Montrose, 1 to 1:30 p. m.; La Canada, 2 to 3 p. m.; La Crescenta, 3:30 to 4:30; Sunland, 5 to 7:30; "town meeting," Little Lands, in the evening.

WILL VISIT PASADENA

Miss Ruby Dale and the mothers of some of her pupils are going over to Pasadena Friday morning to attend a Eurhythmic demonstration, which is to be given in the elementary polytechnic school. Eurhythmics is the science of education through the body, a new system that was developed by a German named Dalcroze, and which is attracting wide attention in educational circles all over the world.

The demonstration is to be given by Miss Marian Kappes, a pupil of Dalcroze, who is probably the only teacher of this system now in California. Miss Kappes has been teaching in Los Angeles and Pasadena on a six months' contract and is going east immediately. Anyone is welcome to attend this demonstration.

SOCIAL POSTPONED

The social and business meeting of the intermediate department of the First M. E. church, to have been given this evening at the home of Wilbur Lee, 106 Cedar street, has been postponed until next Tuesday evening on account of members wishing to be present at the electrical parade in Los Angeles this evening.

LITCHFIELDS DOING WELL

Friends of F. M. Litchfield and family, who moved to a ranch near Orosi last summer, will be pleased to receive a message from them. In remitting his subscription to The News, Mr. Litchfield says: "We are all well and doing fine. We are enjoying a real nice rain which always looks good to a new rancher."

Miss Gertrude Roe of Claremont, Florida, arrived in Glendale Thursday afternoon to visit her sister, Mrs. D. H. Smith of 146 South Maryland.

BRAND-NEW QUARTERS

PUBLIC SERVICE DEPARTMENT OF OUR CITY GOVERNMENT OCCUPY NEW OFFICE

The public service department of the city of Glendale is now nicely located in the new addition to the city hall, where the quarters and accommodations are in keeping with the magnitude of the business and the size and prestige of the city. The new addition is in the rear of the old building and is a capacious and well lighted room, none too large for the needs of the department, yet allowing for the growth that is sure to come.

Entering the room through the hallway from the main entrance to the building, there is a spacious lobby with public phone and chairs and conveniences for the patrons of the office. The appliance department is located in the lobby and all kinds of electrical appliances are nicely displayed on tables and in the showcase which separates the lobby from the work room, while above the showcases and opposite the entrance a neat electric sign tells those who enter to "Do It Electrically." F. E. Raymond has charge of the appliance department.

At the right a door leads into the eastern end of the office, where the manager, H. B. Lynch, has his desk. In other parts of the room are located Mr. P. D. Hall, auditor, a man with much experience in this line of work; Miss Minnie Cross, cashier and bookkeeper, who has been with this department since the city first purchased the electric lighting system more than five years ago, and is familiar with all phases of the office work and enthusiastic in making the department one of great efficiency. Miss Winifred Sadler and D. S. Phillips are register clerks, while the meter readers and collectors, J. F. McIntyre and Garfield Jones; P. Dietrich, foreman, and H. A. Eddy, the draughtsman and record clerk, have desks in the west end of the room. In this part of the building is also a small room containing vault, addressograph, wardrobe, store-room, etc.

The rooms are nicely furnished and plainly but neatly decorated. The new furniture corresponds with the interior finishings and the large windows furnish an abundance of light in all parts of the room.

In their new quarters this department will be able to give a maximum of efficiency with a minimum amount of help. Everything is arranged with the idea of convenience and efficiency. A filing system of the latest and best model has been installed and records are kept in the most up-to-date and approved way. Disinterested men who are experts in this line of work express surprise when they see what has been done and Glendale is considered as having almost achieved the impossible in the way of municipal ownership of public utilities.

The department has been very much handicapped heretofore by insufficient quarters and the work was very seriously hindered. All employees of the office are extremely anxious to continue the splendid record that the department has made in the past and are jubilant that in the new office this will be more easily accomplished.

In this department of the city government the people of Glendale have something of which to be proud. Five years ago Glendale borrowed money to purchase a business and under the efficient management of Mr. Lynch and his capable assistants this money has been paid back with interest, all taxes and expenses of all kinds, including help, having been paid. Extensions and repairs are being made, the rates have been reduced and all this has not cost Glendale one cent but the taxes for the first year. The same thing is being

HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A.

OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR ARE ELECTED AT MAY MEETING

The May meeting of the High School P. T. A. was held on Tuesday afternoon, Dr. Willisford presiding.

The new constitution was adopted, which provides that the regular day of meeting shall be the first Monday of each month, each alternate meeting being an evening session as heretofore.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

Mrs. F. E. Hagin, president.
Mrs. T. W. Preston, vice president.
Mrs. B. H. Nichols, recording secretary.
Mrs. J. B. McClellan, treasurer.
Mrs. A. M. Lord, corresponding secretary and historian.

Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan in her delightful way entertained the members with several vocal numbers and readings.

Miss Flood spoke on "What the Parent-Teacher Association Can Do for the High School," and voiced the hope that the interest of parents in the work of the organization would continue to grow until every parent would be closely in touch with the school life and the school work. She urged that every parent visit the school at least once during the school year, and become acquainted with the instructors; also that they watch carefully all reports from school and particularly that the parents should know where their children are after school hours and what are their amusements.

Dr. Willisford closed the afternoon with an earnest talk on the responsibilities and duties of parents in their relation to the young people and to the school. He laid special emphasis on the attitude of the Parent-Teacher organization toward the young people as being not intended to suppress, but to sympathetically direct and assist in their activities.

Dr. Willisford feels that the growing spirit of co-operation between the parents, the teachers and the students will lead to a better understanding and the attainment of those high ideals for which the association stands.

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION

A special meeting of the Merchants' association was held at City Hall Wednesday evening for the purpose of receiving the resignation of W. H. Crane, secretary of the association, and also for the transaction of other important business.

Communications were read from five persons who are candidates for the position of secretary. No action was taken concerning the election of a secretary at Wednesday evening's meeting, the same being postponed until the regular meeting of the association, which will be held Thursday evening, May 20. The motion prevailed that the following committee, Mr. Bentley, H. H. Fairies and J. N. McGillis wait upon the members of St. Margaret's Guild for the purpose of arranging with them to prepare a supper at the time of the next meeting of the association May 20. Full power was given to this committee to decide as to place, date and menu. It is expected that every member of the association will answer to roll call at the next meeting, which will be one of the most important ever held in the history of the association.

On motion, J. N. McGillis was elected temporary secretary and will serve in that capacity until the regular secretary is appointed. For nearly a year Secretary Crane devoted all of his time to the interest of the association, being paid a salary for his services. It is the opinion of the majority of the members that the organization can be kept in much better condition when a secretary devotes all of his time to the interests of such organization.

done with the water systems, only there will be no taxes the first year. The city has borrowed the money to purchase these systems and in a short time they will pay for themselves, as the records in the office show a phenomenal gain in the short time the city has been in control.

The records of the office are kept so completely and yet with such simplicity that a child can understand them and of course they are open to the public at all times. Manager Lynch and his capable assistants are glad to have the people of Glendale visit the office at any time, examine the new quarters and see just what is being accomplished. Those who do so will go away proud of what is being done along the line of municipal ownership of public utilities in Glendale.

TROPICO ITEMS

MEMBERS OF N. P. BANKS POST AND CORPS GO TO SAN JOSE

N. P. Banks Post and Corps will be most ably represented at the department convention to be held in San Jose next week.

Sunday morning an excursion will leave Los Angeles for San Francisco, and among those who join the excursionists from this post and corps will be George W. Sanford, post commander; Major J. J. Weiler, Robert Taylor and H. S. West, Mrs. David H. Imler, corps president; Mrs. Delia Haggood, department chaplain; Mrs. George Peck, Mrs. L. S. Jenkins, Mrs. William W. Dutton, Mrs. Julia Hayes and Mrs. B. S. West.

Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan, Mrs. Clarence M. Goode and Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock will be hostesses at the O. V. S. card party to be given Wednesday evening, May 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beamon, 245 South Maryland avenue, complimentary to Miss Fredonia Borthick. Miss Borthick, who is worthy matron of Glen Eyrie chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, is also candidate for queen of the fruit and flower festival to be held in Glendale the latter part of May.

Mr. Beamon is worthy patron of the chapter and with the assistance of Mrs. Beamon, treasurer of the chapter, and that of Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Pollock and Mrs. Goode, desire to render this card party, at which 500 will be played, a brilliant financial success. An invitation is extended not only to the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Beamon, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Pollock and Mrs. Goode, but to the many friends and admirers of Miss Borthick, the popular queen candidate.

And now comes just what has been predicted by not only the women, but by the men as well, a petition relative to smoking on street cars.

Petitions asking that smoking be prohibited on street cars and all public conveyances in Los Angeles are being circulated with a view to their being presented to the city council.

Reasons given by the petitioners are: "That the custom of smoking tobacco in any form is a means of poisoning the air and the cause of exceeding discomfort and illness to many who are not addicted to its use—especially women and children."

Miss Frances M. Richardson of Los Angeles, of national repute as the "flag lady," was the guest of Mrs. David H. Imler of Palm Villa Wednesday.

Mr. William Pierson, a banker of Brooklyn, Iowa, is the house guest of his cousins, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson and Miss Eula Richardson of Central avenue and Riverdale drive.

The Tropico branch of the Parent-Teacher association will hold the annual election of officers at the regular meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Martha McClure will present a musical program. Judge E. H. Smith, brother of Rev. Smith of the Tropico Methodist Episcopal church, will give a talk on the playgrounds in England.

MESSRS. CRANE AND MCGEE

W. H. Crane and E. A. McGee have purchased a mercantile business on the Pacific Electric Short Line two miles from Venice and took charge of the same Monday of this week. Messrs. Crane and McGee were for several years proprietors of the Newberry store on Broadway, Glendale, and both of these gentlemen are experienced business men. Mr. Crane for the past year has served very efficiently as secretary of the Glendale Merchants association and it is with much regret that the association has been forced to accept Mr. Crane's resignation which was presented at a special meeting of the association held in the city hall Wednesday evening. It is the wish of the merchants and the citizens of Glendale that Messrs. Crane and McGee may meet with unbounded success in their new place of business.

DORAN STREET PATRONS' DAY

The teachers and pupils of the Doran street school entertained with their first annual Patrons' Day program on Wednesday. In addition to drills by the children, Miss Grace Ralph of Hollywood sang delightfully and Mrs. C. A. Webb played several charming selections on the school's new piano. The court of the building, where the exercises took place, was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns.

After a short business meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, refreshments were served and those present inspected an extensive exhibit of the pupils' work arranged by Miss Hatch and Miss Collins.

TO BOOST FIESTA

PREPARATIONS FOR BIG BOOST- ER TEA ARE NEARLY COMPLETE

Preparations being made for the big Booster tea to be given Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, 106 Orange street, indicate that it is going to be "some tea," and an event worthy of the big Festival of Fruit and Flowers which it is to launch.

The afternoon has been set aside for the young people, though everyone will be cordially welcomed. Pupils from the sixth grade to the high school are taking much interest in the poster contest and an array of posters that will daunt the judges, Mrs. R. E. Chase, Mrs. J. F. Hearnshaw and Mrs. Charles Homer Temple, are promised. The decision will be made and the prizes awarded Saturday afternoon. A bevy of pretty high school girls will serve punch during the afternoon, the names to be announced later. Nanon L. Herren, a talented woman of Topeka, Kans., and president of the State Press association, will give a program of readings.

In the evening the following ladies will serve: Mrs. Luther Brown, Mrs. Helen I. Campbell, Mrs. Frank Grosvenor, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Miss Alice Frank, Mrs. LeRoy W. Bosserman, Mrs. J. G. ### WISHARD'S BILLS

REPRESENTATIVE FROM THIS DISTRICT WORKER IN LEGISLATURE

A call of the house, changing the votes, were the trimmings which went with a spirited debate in the assembly when Assemblyman Wishard's bill for a public attorney to prosecute or defend actions for poor people passed. The call of the house saved the measure from defeat.

The bill provides that a person unable to pay for the costs in an action, or unable to pay for the services of an attorney, when having a good cause for action in the civil courts, shall have an attorney named for him by the court and costs shall not be assessed against him.

It is also provided that he shall receive money awarded by the judgment. An attorney also is provided where a defendant is too poor to engage one.

Opposition and support to the measure came from the camp of the lawyer members. The men who practice law were about equally divided on the measure.

Here is the way the speakers for and against lined up:

For the bill—Wishard, the author; Spengler, Shartel, W. A. McDonald, Downing and Harris.

Against the bill—Hawson, Bruck, Manning and Burke.

Wishard, Shartel and Downing are lawyers, as are Hawson and Manning and Burke.

The Wishard mothers' pension bill for the extension of the pensioning idea to mothers, passed the assembly last Saturday night. State aid for abandoned mothers is a feature of the bill. The bill provides also that no property shall be taken away from a mother for debt or to pay for provisions.

The object of the bill is to extend the state aid so the mothers may keep their children at home instead of having them sent to institutions.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Tomorrow evening, Friday, May 8, at 8 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Third and Central, will be given under the auspices of the Brotherhood of the church a concert of unusual merit. This concert will be rendered by the Pacific Mutual Glee club, an organization composed of sixteen young men connected with the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company of Los Angeles.

This club has as its efficient director Mr. Horatio Cogswell, who is at the head of the music department of the University of Southern California and choir director of the West Adams M. E. church of Los Angeles. Mr. Cogswell is recognized as one of the best baritone soloists of Southern California. Mrs. C. E. Jacobson, a pianist of much ability, serves as accompanist for the Glee club.

The following is a list of the club members: E. M. Young, Nolen N. Allen, Clifton Herd, J. R. Freckleton, Leslie J. Cooper, C. K. Kinsey, H. V. Steger, C. E. Jacobson, H. Francis Maxfield, Herbert Brown, L. Morgan, Frank Otto, W. A. Larson, Claude A. Wayne, R. H. Gobrecht and Leo J. Smith.

Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, the well-known reader of Glendale, will give as a reading "The Village Seamstress," by Kate Douglas Wiggin.

The indications are that the concert will be largely attended, for this club has a reputation for giving concerts that more than please the people.

DRY CAMPAIGN

The new campaign for "California Dry" is to be inaugurated at the state convention soon to be held at Fresno. Los Angeles county is entitled to 226 delegates, who will be elected at the convention which opens in Los Angeles at 10 a. m. Friday, May 7, at the State Normal school, Fifth street and Grand avenue.

A letter from Congressman C. H. Randall of the ninth district says in part:

"It is an unfortunate provision of the call for the new 'dry' convention that the Barbary coast district of San Francisco is to have as many delegates as the dryest portion of the ninth congressional district, with an equal number of registered voters. The result may be that our new dry amendment will be written by the enemies of state-wide prohibition instead of its friends."

SCHOOL BOARD ORGANIZES

Members of the board of education of the high school district held a meeting and organized for the ensuing year on Saturday, May 1. Dr. A. L. Bryant was elected president, Irving Oliver secretary and Dr. A. L. Bryant and C. O. Pulliam were elected members of the house committee.

ATTENDANCE AT SAN DIEGO

April made the third consecutive month that the daily average attendance at the San Diego exposition showed an increase, according to official figures just made public by President G. A. Davidson.

The attendance during April was 152,148, with a daily average of 5071. The daily average was higher than in February and March and almost equaled the average for January, which was swelled by the great crowds attending during the opening week. The attendance from January 1 to May 1 totals 618,622.

April also contributed to the profit side of the ledger, the net for the month being $10,470. Considering the unfavorable weather in the last ten days of April, the attendance and profits is extremely satisfactory.

With a great rush of visitors to come during the vacation period, which will start the last of this month and continue through the summer, a big increase in attendance and revenue is looked for, according to President Davidson.

"The million attendance mark is not far distant," said President Davidson. "As soon as the exposition has passed this mark a big celebration will be in order, plans for which are already being taken up. It is gratifying to the management to know that the exposition is being operated each month at a good profit and if we can make this kind of a showing without the heaviest travel we are conservative in our expectations that the vacation months will contribute big sums to the right side of the ledger."

Even at this early date in May the attendance for the month promises to pass the April figure. Several large delegations are booked to visit the exposition this month and the series of excursions from Southern California points on account of the special days for cities and counties of the Southland, starting May 7th, will contribute large crowds.

BEAUTIFUL WORDS FOR THE LIVING

It is rare indeed that such beautiful words of love and appreciation are ever printed about one during one's life time, but the following were printed in a Minnesota paper several years ago concerning Mrs. J. D. Ashbaugh, whose death at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Willisford, on April 25, was noted in these columns.

Those who knew Mrs. Ashbaugh know the words were as true at the time of her death as they were when first printed.

In Appreciation

I have always hoped that my religion might enable me to break my alabaster box for the living who alone need it and who always do need it.

Let the foregoing beautiful sentiment by James Lane Allen be my excuse for what follows.

There are today two members in our Winnebago church whose relation to us is so phenomenal that it seems to me, we may speak of them, while they still live, in words of appreciation without defrauding others who, perhaps, are equally worthy. One came to us a stranger, from a larger and more influential church, a visitor in the home of her son-in-law, our pastor.

We fancied our smaller interests and struggling enterprises might not appeal to her and besides there was a new "Carol" in the manse which might easily have absorbed her attention, but her stay had scarcely lengthened to weeks before we felt the warmth of her loving influence and shrank from the thought of losing her.

Circumstances permitted her to remain and we found ourselves depending upon her sound judgment and loving companionship.

Especially was this true of the aged and those whom sorrow, poverty or misfortune oppressed. Her ministrations were equally ready, whether in comforting an aching heart, counseling a faltering judgment or regulating a refractory stove flue. So Christ-like was she in her tender thoughtfulness that it might almost literally be said "that blind were made to see, the lame to walk and the poor had the gospel preached unto them."

Eyes she was to the blind, feet to the lame and she carried glad tidings for "she opened her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue was the law of kindness."

She possessed that most enviable characteristic, "a heart at leisure from itself to soothe and sympathize." We are a stronger church today for her influence and when we gathered last Wednesday evening to speed her on her way to her good husband and another home the feeling of sadness and impending loss was almost oppressive.

ORIGIN AND SIGNIFICANCE OF "MOTHERS' DAY"

To honor the best woman and most loved one—your mother.

For mothers living—blossoms bright;
For mother's memory—flowers white.

This most beautiful idea and sentiment originated by Miss Annie Jarvis of Philadelphia in 1908 on the first anniversary of the death of her mother by wearing her mother's favorite flower—white carnation—acting on this happy thought she suggested that to all mothers, whether living or dead, they should be specially honored some one day in each year, so the second Sunday in May was designated and duly proclaimed as "Mothers' Day" and the white carnation as the floral emblem to be worn that day in memory of mother gone before.

Who is there that has not in the secret recesses of the heart the love of mother? That would not gladly pay homage to her whose guiding hand and loving eyes so jealously guarded your first feeble footsteps? Whose watchful care and tireless labors protected you from a cold, heartless world? Surely one tiny blossom now while she can still see and admire its beauty and inhale its fragrance is worth more to her than will be a thousand laid on her bier. And those to whom mother is but a memory will be glad to pay tribute to her of the long ago on the one day of the year set aside by congress of the United States and designated as "Mothers' Day." The emblem is flowers—the silent messenger of love and constancy.

"Mother O' Mine"

If I were hanged on the highest hill,
Know whose love would follow me still;

Mother O' Mine.

If I were drowned in the deepest sea,
Know whose tears would come down to me;

Mother O' Mine.

If I were damned of body and soul,
Know whose prayers would make me whole;

Mother O' Mine.

—Rudyard Kipling.

THE MOST IMPORTANT MAN

The cereal producer is the most important man in our nation, but he has been, and is, neglected. The man with the steel rail has been the model of aspiring youths. The man with the oil tank has been the model for young men to pattern after. Yet these men, with all they possess, could not buy the farmer's last loaf of bread; for the bread producer would keep it for his family, even at the risk of being called selfish.—J. H. Tilden, M. D.

A New York sculptor has modeled a piece representing the "get-there spirit." Of course, it is a demon chauffeur at the wheel.

The position of a neutral may not be a happy one, but take one consideration with another, it's a great deal happier than that of any of the belligerents.

THE RUSSIAN WAY

Undoubtedly the best form of government is a despotism—if you could always be sure to get the right kind of benevolent despot. Please note the "if."

In Russia the manufacture and sale of the fiery spirit, vodka, a government monopoly that yielded half a billion dollars a year—and incidentally was rapidly making of the Russians a nation of sots—was abolished by a stroke of the Czar's pen.

Next came an edict suppressing middlemen, so that henceforth commodities will move directly from the producer to the consumer.

Last, but by no means least, the Czar has ordered universal compulsory education of all children within his domains.

It may be that these reforms have been brought about by progressives, acting through the priest who has so mysterious an influence over Nicholas, but it was the Czar who actually did it.

Also, we should not forget that while we spent fifty years of heated argument and hotter fighting before we freed the slaves, the Russian serfs were set free in less than as many seconds, or in the time it required Czar Nicholas to write his name.

Keep your eyes on Russia. That vast empire, three times as large as the United States, including Alaska, will be worth observing during the next few years.—Brain and Brawn.

A man who goes around with a chip on his shoulder will finally encounter as big a fool as he is, and there will be a fight.

Chicago is going to enforce a strict billboard ordinance. Why cannot the City of the Angels do at least as well as the City of Stockyards?

SUSPICIOUS

The person who on examining a home made henhouse remarked that "it looked as if some fellow had built it himself" has a kindred spirit in a delightfully simple old lady, noted for her naive comments. In a street car not long ago she noticed a man who was carrying a shotgun and a blanket roll.

"Look at him," she whispered to her companion. "He looks as if he were going to spend the night somewhere."—Youth's Companion.

WARNING FROM SAN FRANCISCO

(Contributed by W. C. T. U.)

In view of the deplorable conditions now existing in San Francisco, the executive board of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Northern California begs to make the following statements:

1. There are at the present time hundreds of girls and women looking for employment who can find none. Many of these girls and women are destitute, strangers in a strange city. They came to San Francisco with barely sufficient to pay their board and lodging for a few days.

2. Every day adds to the number of the unemployed and the conditions are growing constantly more serious. The exposition authorities have ten applications for every position they have to fill.

3. The unemployed are from all grades and classes.

We ask that these statements be given all possible publicity in the Union Signal and state W. C. T. U. papers, in the religious press and in the newspapers generally throughout the country.

We also appeal for co-operation from all who read this article to assist in securing the desired publicity for this warning.

In view of the foregoing the executive board of the California Woman's Christian Temperance Union wishes to advise strongly that no girl or woman come to San Francisco to look for employment unless she has with her sufficient means to pay her living expenses while looking for work and pay her return traveling expenses should suitable work not be found.

THE BATTLE FOR WHEAT

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, Herbert Quick, editor of that publication, writes as follows, explaining why American farmers have a direct financial interest in Russia's struggle to get to the Mediterranean:

"As this is written, the greatest battle which ever took place between warships and short fortifications is being fought in the narrow waterway from the Black Sea to the waters of the Mediterranean.

"It is a battle for wheat. Its outcome will affect the price of every bushel of wheat and other grains now held in the United States, and every bushel harvested next season.

"A glance at the map of Europe shows that this must be so. Russia is a great wheat-growing country. There is now on hand there a huge supply of wheat which cannot get to market—from 125,000,000 to 175,000,000 bushels.

"It cannot get to market because Germany controls the waters and railroads leading westward from Russia. Russia will not sell to Germany or Austria because she is at war with them.

"The Black sea is Russia's outlet and Turkey controls the Bosphorus, the little Sea of Marmora, and the Dardanelles, that ancient waterway between the East and the West for which battles have been fought for thousands of years.

"Wheat has gone off several cents a bushel because the allies have smashed the forts at the entrance to the Dardanelles. The American farmer's pocket-book is vitally affected because England has built a great ship, the Queen Elizabeth, which crushes forts as did the German siege guns in Belgium. And yet there are those who say the United States can keep out of entanglements in world politics!

"The map of the world is changing and history is turning as on a pivot in this war. We as farmers will find the price of feed and the rewards of our labor changing with the map and the course of history."

BIGGEST DRYDOCK IN WORLD TO BE ON PACIFIC COAST

"I am on the Pacific coast to start work at San Francisco on the largest drydock ever constructed. It is to be built near the Union Iron works; will require two years to complete, and is to be owned and operated by the United States government."

In these few words, uttered by him as another man might tell a casual acquaintance of plans for a prospective fishing trip, Charles M. Schwab, head of the great Bethlehem Steel corporation, at the Hotel Green, in Pasadena, last night made public the "inside" of his unexpected trip to California.

"This drydock will be the largest in the world in every particular," continued Mr. Schwab, matching with a pleasant twinkle in his eyes the look of astonishment he saw sweep over the face of the interviewer. "The largest warship afloat or laid down for construction and the greatest of the world's merchant vessels can be accommodated by the big dock when completed. I have no comparative figures for you, but the dock will be all I say for it."

COOL TOWARD HIM

After shaking hands at the station the other day, one negro man inquired of another:

"Didn't you marry de Widow Jones de first of January?"

"Dat's me—I did," was the answer; "but I've dun left her."

"Why, how's dat?"

"Well, de fust week she called me honey, de next week she sulked around and called me old Richard, the third week she cum for me wid a flatiron an' I se kinder got a hunch she don't like me."

ROAD DAY FOR GLENDALE

A few weeks ago a middle west town observed Road Repair Day, at which time several hundred citizens of that locality assembled, formed themselves into divisions, and went to work filling up ruts, picking up stones and in other ways repairing the main roads leading into the city in question.

The report given by those engaged in this good work is a very flattering one, and it is the plan now to follow out this method in many surrounding towns. Why would it not be in place for the citizens of Glendale to designate some day as Road Day and at that time it would be possible to have several hundred automobile owners and truck drivers of the city get together and work down many of the bad places in the Glendale streets. Many men have time to engage in half a day's work of this kind, and the result of the whole affair would be that many bad places in the roads would be repaired.

PROMPT ATTENDANCE

Almost every citizen of Glendale belongs to an organization of some kind. It is impossible for a man who belongs to a half dozen or more organizations to be in attendance at all of the meetings of these organizations to which he belongs. However, it would seem the duty of every citizen to keep his promise after making a statement that he will be in attendance at a specified meeting. There have been instances in which out of a membership of ninety persons fifty of these persons who had promised to be present at a regularly called meeting of the organization, and when the time came for calling the meeting to order there would not be more than ten persons present. Of course in some of these instances there is a good excuse for a member's being absent, but the general rule should be to keep good a promise.

It is one of the prevailing evils of the present day to make promises easily and break them just as easily. What holds true in the case of breaking promises made concerning attending meetings of organized bodies will likely be true as to promises made in every day business. Promises should be made carefully and when made should be fulfilled as made.

EASTERN CAPITALIST HERE

Henry Johnston of 335 Everett street had the great pleasure Wednesday of a visit with his cousin, Mr. R. A. Austin, a former playfellow whom he had not seen for twenty years. Mr. Austin is a very successful real estate man who has large interests in Wisconsin and Iowa and other eastern states. He has accumulated a fortune by his own business foresight and ability. He has a plan on foot now to lease from the city of Iowa a lake of several thousand acres for twenty years and drain and farm it. Similar ventures on his part have been very successful. Among his other holdings Mr. Austin is the owner of a fine, well improved farm of more than 600 acres in Iowa. Eventually he hopes to retire from active business operations in the east and make his home in Southern California. The cousins greatly enjoyed talking over boyhood days and recalling the many pranks of youth.

Miss I. Jordan of 626 South Bonnie Brae street gave a delightful dinner Monday evening in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. T. J. Keleher. Covers were laid for eight guests.

A FAIR EXCHANGE

SAN DIEGO, May 6.—If "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary," it certainly is a far cry from New York's Rialto to the Painted Desert, home of the Hopi Indians at the San Diego exposition. An incident of the isthmus, the exposition's joy street, pertains to this and shows a linking of friendship between Miss Florence Halpin, dashing New York show girl, and Ma-We-Ka-Ma, a beautiful Indian girl from the Painted Desert.

Miss Halpin came to the exposition on a personally conducted tour from the east. She wore the latest decree of dame fashion, Tipperary hose. Tipperary hose is attractive. From the ankle up six inches they are embroidered in gold and silver with the outline of a buttoned Hussar military boot, and at the top is a tassel.

When Miss Halpin visited the Painted Desert she was followed about by Ma-We-Ka-Ma, whose eyes feasted on the Tipperary hose. The Indian girl wore a handsome blanket made by a chief of her tribe. Miss Halpin's eyes feasted on the blanket. The eyes of the two girls met. These girls of such different types—one portraying the daintiness of mid lady, the other the wildness of the desert—exchanged glances and right in this exchange a barter was made. The flaming red blanket is going back to New York with Miss Halpin. The Tipperary hose remains here with Ma-We-Ka-Ma.

Anticipating the time when the voice will blend successfully with the motion picture film in the production of something that inventors have not yet developed to their entire satisfaction, one of the stars of the Metropolitan Opera company of New York has signed a contract with a motion picture concern. Not the least interesting feature of this transformation from the vocal altitudes to the silent canvas is that it shows the advantage of a singer's dramatic adaptability. Geraldine Farrar's newest stagecraft is yet to be demonstrated to the public when unaccompanied by a voice singularly ineffective in itself, yet the motion picture world, still in process of its development in so far as possibilities extend, undoubtedly will be interested in these latest "songs without words" as the Metropolitan artist makes ready to present them.

THE CRIME OF BLACKMAIL

Blackmail is a most despicable form of crime. Sometimes it is based on knowledge of individual wrongdoing, followed by an honorable career. Often it results from entrapping a man or woman through cunning device, creating an aspect of evil, and then making the victim pay dearly for immunity from exposure. The only way to defeat the blackmailer is by open defiance, but this requires rare courage. In the great majority of such cases as come to light, the money is paid over and the criminals sally forth for fresh prey. The bolder and more wantonly deliberate of these crimes take the form of what is known as the "badger game."

Only recently two women have been convicted of this in Los Angeles courts and now await sentence, which it is hoped in the name of justice will not be mild. More recently an old man, minister and physician, his long career blameless, fell into the clutches of some gang and despairing of release, killed himself. This act is not the slightest evidence that he had been guilty of anything more than the appearance of indiscretion due, in all probability, to his having been lured by a plea for charity, or on pretext equally innocent to the observer. For a rich man to avoid the blackmailer is not always possible, and hence when approached by a fair stranger, whatever her guise, there has grown up a habit of treating her with a caution that might be distressing to one of really good intent. Unfortunately the blackmail system, as practiced by a certain type of detectives, has been used with success in divorce cases, the man or woman being tricked, probably with no thought of evil, and brought to a position difficult or impossible to explain away. If there is a remedy for all this, it lies in the prompt and severe penalty dealt out to offenders. —Long Beach Telegram.

LAW OF 1872 REPEALED

A state law which required school trustees and other public bodies to advertise for plans for buildings has been in effect since 1872, but until recently was not enforced. Both houses of the state legislature have voted in favor of its repeal and the bill is now before Governor Johnson for his signature. The bill just passed simply repeals the existing law, thus making it optional as to advertising for plans and the selection of an architect. As there is no emergency clause in the bill, it will not go into effect until 90 days after the legislature adjourns.

CALIFORNIA CEMENT DEPOSITS

J. Lansing Burrows of Philadelphia, who represents one of the largest cement manufacturing concerns in the east, was recently in Porterville, California, according to press reports, to inspect the huge cement rock deposits in the foothills recently secured by a Riverside concern. The deposits total 1000 acres. Interests which Burrows represents have taken an option on the rock and he believes they will soon close for the purchase of the property. —Cement and Engineering News.

WHY WOMEN WEEP

The reason some women weep more easily than others, and all more readily than the sterner sex, has not its difference in the strength of the tear gland, but in the possession of a more delicate, impressible nerve system. The nerve fibers about the gland vibrate more easily, causing a downpour from the watery sac. Men are not nearly so sensitive to emotion; their sympathetic nature—the term is used in a medical sense—is less developed, and the eye gland is, therefore, protected from shocks. Consequently a man should thank the formation of his nerve nature when he contemptuously scorns tears as a woman's practice. —Washington Herald.

WISH TO BE ONE CITY

The Pasadena News strongly favors consolidation of Pasadena and South Pasadena. All the interests of the two are in common and there are many reasons why this mutuality should be recognized. Los Angeles is reaching out for South Pasadena, its overtures being received with some favor. Similar overtures to Pasadena do not excite similar response. Were South Pasadena to become one with Pasadena, the future of the former would be settled for a long time, and the tendency to consent to being annexed by Los Angeles would disappear. Changes that would follow would be distinctly advantageous. South Pasadena would have the benefit of its associate's sewerage system, local switching for telephones, continuation of street systems, water systems, improved drainage and improved transportation.

The consolidated city would be of sufficient size to possess dignity, and when united in action no mean strength. Of course there are many details to be settled, but the great transportation problem awaits solution, and towards reaching the solution, consolidation seems to be an essential step. Certainly the two cities, working as one, could exert an influence that never could be applied except by concerted action. In forming the union, neither could be accused of selfish motive, for each would contribute a part to the general prosperity, and neither be required to give, without receiving quid pro quo. —Long Beach Telegram.

One of the chief credits for the department of agriculture as now administered is its interest in farmers' wives and the provision it is making for their "wants." Later it will be easier to meet their "needs." Such tactics make it appear that Secretary David F. Houston is a wise man. Yet he, too, is a "college professor" and of the ridiculed "scholar in politics" class. But no doubt it is because he is an educator of experience that he bethought him of his referendum to find out just what the women on the farms were thinking about, what they missed most out of their isolated lives, and what they wanted to appear first as a supplement or corrective of present conditions. The confidential messages that came flowing back to Washington after this official inquiry had begun to do its penetrating work were of an illuminating kind. The man farmer does not get a first-class recommendation for consideration. It is surprising how many country women think that the horses and cattle often are rated as of more value than the human beings that they serve. The farmers' wives seldom have money to spend that they can call their own. They want more economic liberty, fairer division of pleasures, and an ample opportunity to be social and to become socialized. With this knowledge in his possession the secretary now can plan, not for an abstract but a concrete situation. —C. S. Monitor.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of so many buttons from the coats of United States soldiers stationed at the San Diego exposition has been solved. A sign in a jewelry store reading: "Hat pins made from military buttons" cleared the mystery. The soldier boys have been giving these insignia to fair visitors, the girls declaring that the buttons make fine heads for hat pins.

THE TIDES—BY WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT

The moon is at her full, and riding high,
Floods the calm fields with light.
The airs that hover in the summer sky
Are all asleep tonight.

There comes no voice from the great woodlands round
That murmured all the day;
Beneath the shadow of their boughs, the ground
Is not more still than they.

But ever heaves and moans the restless deep;
His rising tides I hear,
Afar I see the glimmering billows leap;
I see them breaking near.

Each wave springs upward, climbing toward the fair
Pure light that sits on high—
Springs eagerly and faintly sinks, to where
The mother waters lie.

Upward again it swells; the moonbeams show,
Again its glimmering crest;
Again it feels the fatal weight below
And sinks, but not to rest.

Again and yet again, until the deep
Recalls his brood of waves
And, with a sullen moan, abashed, they creep
Back to his inner caves.

Brief respite, they shall rush from that recess
With noise and tumult soon.
And fling themselves with unavailing stress
Up toward the placid moon.

Oh, restless sea, that in thy prison here
Dost struggle and complain,
Through the slow centuries yearning to be near
To that fair orb in vain.

The glorious source of light and heat must warm
The billows from on high,
And change them to the cloudy trains that form
The curtains of the sky.

Then only may they leave the waste of brine
In which they welter here,
And rise above the hills of earth, and shine
In a serener sphere.
